REPRINTS.

Extract from an Address to the people of the United States on the subject of the Report of a Committee of the House of Representatives appointed to examine and report, whether monies drawn from the Treasury, have been faithfully applied to the objects for which they were appropriated, and whether the same have been regularly accounted for (Report presented to Congress April 29th, 1802), by Oliver Wolcott, late Secretary of the Treasury, dated at Litchfield, Connecticut, July 12th, 1802.

Also extract from Report of Committee appointed to make examination of such expenditures, including an account of payments made at the Treasury for the removal of the officers and clerks of the several Executive Departments to the seat of Government; also the expenses attending the removal of papers, books, &c.
